

Rebekah Elizabeth Eubanks

October 7, 1978 - February 15, 2013

On Friday, February 15, 2013, the portals of heaven opened and received a very special Angel. Rebekah Elizabeth Gilliam Eubanks fell asleep in the arms of the Lord, and passed from this life to the next life, and is resting where there is no more sorrow, no more sickness, and no more pain. She is happy and free from the 5 year battle she has waged against cancer. She fought a fight that was beyond what most could have endured, and never lost the happiness and joy that she had, that was so infectious to everyone that she knew. She has a special gift of pulling people together, making the bad situations always seem better, and bringing happiness and joy to all who knew her. She loved life, and was blessed with a special love and gift to help people, and to minister to those in need. She was the heart and soul mate of her loving and caring husband Justin Eubanks. The love they shared was and is far reaching beyond the boundaries of earth and time. She was the loving and caring step mother to Austin and Lilly Eubanks, a precious baby girl to her father and mother, Ron and Krista Gilliam, and much more than a beloved sister to Rachel, Kimberly, and Joshua Gilliam and her sisters by marriage, Kim, Jami, and Christie. Becky shared a love and relationship with her dad that was an eternal bond that can never be broken. Although she was chosen by the Lord to go home first, that bond is stronger now than it has ever been and she is everlastingly burned into his heart. Becky and her mom were not only mother and daughter, but were best friends. They were bonded in love, and had promised to always take care of each other. That love and pact is still in place, Becky is looking over the banisters of heaven and loving her mom. Also surviving are the parents of Justin Eubanks, Mike and Janet Eubanks. Becky loved them profoundly. Special aunt, Denise Priest, and several other aunts and uncles also survive her along with numerous cousins whom she loved without any limits and boundaries. Special cousins Jeremiah Priest, Jason Priest, and Jennifer Hatmacher were and are knit together in her heart, and she loved them deeply. Her "Granny", Madge Gilliam, whom she loved deeply, preceded her in death. Her family, friends, and coworkers have been, and will forever be better people from knowing Becky, and their hearts have forever been changed by her loving, caring, and selfless nature. She freely gave of herself, and of her love to anyone who would accept it. She will be greatly missed, but her love and gift will continue on through those of us that are left behind. We will continue her work until we can join her one-day, and have the reunion we all are longing for. A special thank you to all who supported Becky and her family in this trial. There are too many to name, but your outpouring of love and care was beyond love boundaries. Visitation will be held Tuesday, February 19, 2013 10:30 am - 2:30 pm at Robert D. Loose Funeral Homes & Crematory, 200 West 53rd St. Anderson, Indiana. Services will be at 2:30 pm, Tuesday, February 19, 2013, at the funeral home with Pastor Ronnie Kolb officiating. Burial will take place in Pee Wee Cemetery. www.loosecares.com.

“ Dear parents and husband of Rebekah I am sorry for the tragic loss of your daughter and wife,As a mother, I cannot imagine your pain.We may wonder why? or if their is anything to look forward to? Jesus well knew the Bible statement:" Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all"Ecclesiastes 9:11. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen.The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29. Revelation 21:3,4 states that in the future ' death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away.'Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to undo the tragedies that touch our lives today and we will be able to welcome back onto the paradise earth,our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.As you read the above texts in your Bible, may they comfort you now and in the future.sincerely dianne mullins

“ Justin.....I can't express how sad I am for your loss. You are stronger than you know. I didn't work with Becky that long but I have to tell you, when I mentioned your name her face lit up! Her eyes sparkled and she grinned from ear to ear! Truly you could see the love she has for you in her face! Let that be a comfort to you knowing she will always be with you. When you see something that makes you happy, that's her. When you see something that is beautiful..that is her. God is with you and will keep you and your family close. You are in my heart and prayers... Your Friend,Kelly Kean

“ I'm so very saddened to hear of this loss of Becky. My condolences go out to Becky's families during this most certainly difficult time. Even though my visits with her were few. I feel blessed that I was able to meet her. She had the warmest smile. As I read stories about her, It seems everyone felt like a friend to her from lifetime to new. Knowing that she is without pain anymore and will be preparing a place for all of us helps. I hope this can bring some comfort and it will be reminded to me by her great big warm smile. She will be sorely missed, but absolutely never forgotten and I will be praying for the family during this difficult time. Bret "Hack" Hackleman

“ Becky touched so many - those that lived with her, were friends with her and those of us who only knew her though FB. She touched each and everyone of us that all are sadden by the loss of such a beautiful person. Her husband I pray that God will comfort him and that he will know she is finally at peace. Her family, her mother and father and all that I saw their written words touched me as if she were my sister. May God give all the comfort of great memories in place of tears and a quote I saw that Becky liked was SMILE. So, smile for her so she can see that we are thinking of her even as we miss her so. God Bless All.

“ I cannot begin to express the sadness I feel for Justin and Becky's families. True goodness is so rarely seen, but she had it in spades!!! As I know there is nothing I can say or do to lessen your pain, know that I am truly sorry for your loss and BLESSED to have known her and to have seen the impact she had on so many.... A true angel on earth who has been returned to our father!
