“ The News of Rena's passing saddened me deeply. I remember so well the "college years" when she would prepare many meals for a very broke student. During that time, I was so grateful for all the home cooked meals, along with a hug and a smile every time we visited her! Those times were hard, and scary, but Rena had a way of making me feel at home, and you can't put a price on memories like that! I know you are now at peace, and in a much better place, but you will be missed by those remaining here on earth. I always admired her faith and how she put everyone else's needs first. Thank you again for all you did to show you believed in me and making the hard times much more bearable, Les

“ Father we come before you with heavy hearts at the loss of Rena. Mother, Mom, Grandmother, Aunt, Friend and one of Your Children Lord. How thankful we are that you allowed her to be a part of all of our lives. It's painful to let her go but we pray that your presence will give comfort and peace to the family and friends. Time has a way of healing wounds and bringing memories to mind. Each with their own special thoughts. We'll miss the kisses and hugs but will never forget her love! Lord, place Your strong loving arms around the family and hold them close. Thank You Father! Thank You for your Son Jesus Christ and His gift to us all! God Bless you all Family and Friends of dear, sweet Rena!

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Rena. Our Family all have so many great memories of her throughout the many years. I will not forget the time she went with us to TN to help Star & Les move. She made our trip a lot of fun!!! Oh yes, and the many times she would invite us to eat great meals at her home. She had a lot of class. You are all in our prayers

“ As Christians we celebrate when one of God's children is called home to be with the Lord. Even though we celebrate this occasion, we still have heavy hearts here on this side of heaven. My prayer is that the family and friends can find comfort and healing during the greifing process in the arms of the Lord. Lean on Him, and let Him be your rock, your refuge, in this time of need. 2Samuel 22:2-3 reminds us "that the Lord is our deliverer, our savior, and the horn of our salvation." May God bless you and keep you. God Bless Bob Hendrickson
