“ Rick you were something else. Man, what a great dad. Worked his ass off to get me where I needed to be then changed directions in life. Life takes us all in crazy directions but one thing I knew was...right up til the end... you gave and gave and gave to everyone you knew. Never asked for one thing back but people to be cool around you. Hard to explain my life growing up to the kids vs theirs...but you broke the cycle with me and I love you so much for that. I would not be where I am without you and mom working your asses off. Miss talking to you on the phone. Miss the way your were before your cancer and stroke. Hope you enjoyed Gatlinburg ! LU Ry
