“ Rich and I were good working friends and I always enjoyed our conversations about work and his outdoor hobbies. I especially enjoyed our conversation at the Purchasing Christmas Dinner which was the last time I saw Rich. We had agreed to plan a canoe trip for this year. My sincere prayers are extended to his family, especially his brother Bob who has also been a good working friend.

“ There are no words to express the sadness we have. Curt and I considered Richie not only a best friend, but a true brother of our family, an Uncle to our children. Our days have not been the same since he passed. The overwhelming sadness is nearly unbearable! We are not able to be at his funeral and with his family, but our hearts are with all the people who were close to him and loved him as we did. We will be his "family" forever. He will be so missed. We are so grateful that we have wonderful, precious memories to sustain us during this sad time and always. Our prayers are that he has found peace. Love and prayers to his family.
