“ Wanted you all to know that my thoughts & prayers are with you. Loss is never easy but I know our loss is God's gain & it's comforting to know Rick will be there watching over you. I was a classmate of Rick's & our days together at Highland HS seem like almost yesterday. Sending my love and prayers and hugs.

“ Where do I begin? The day I signed up for facebook, February 11th, 2009 and there you were. YOU were my first friend. So we re-connected after so long. I'm so glad I got to visit with you in September and meet your beautiful family. We had some good times that day going down memory lane. It's been so good to be reconnected. You had a special place in a lot of people's hearts and you will never be forgotten. I'm so glad you are free from your pain and you probably have that "silly" smile of yours on your face right now looking down on all of us. I can't even begin to express how many times you were there for me during all my "David" break ups. YOU were always a good friend. Crazy times we had in that little apartment in North A. Keep smiling my friend, you are in a much better place than we are now. I'll cherish the freindship we had forever. My prayers and thoughts will be with your children and Becky.

I was proud to say he was a friend and wish the best for the family. Thank you Rick for being a good friend and a wonderful, caring person.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Mr. Lawson. I can only imagine the pain you are experiencing right now. However, I'm convinced that God is aware of the pain you and your family are experiencing right now. In fact, 1 Peter 5:7 says, "While you throw all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you." So when you all feel down, throw all your troubles on God. Psalm 55:22 encourages us to do so. It says, "Throw your burden upon Jehovah God's name himself. And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous on to totter." I hope you all will find these scriptures encouraging.
