“ *Dick was the oldest surviving cousin on our father's side of the family. I regret I find myself in that position now. Because I've not lived in Anderson since 1965, we rarely saw one another. It was a rare treat for both of us when we did.
Blessings & love to you Anna & family,

“ I've only known your dad through his rehab experience. We enjoyed sharing running stories. He was always motivated and appreciative during my time with him, Clearly he was a kind and thoughtful man. I'm sorry that he is gone from your life but you are fortunate to have had him as your father. Praying for comfort to all family.
