“ Emma, I am so sorry for your loss! Your Dad, My Uncle was an amazing person, he went thru many ups and downs and still managed to KEEP that amazing smile and attitude. I moved out of Anderson in 94, so I didn't get to see him as often as I liked.. But Uncle Dicky will be deeply missed by his nieces Tabatha Allender, Vickie Keihn, His Sister Karen Reel, And the rest of his family. May God Bless the entire family and help us thru this trying time!

“ To the "The Truth" in Orlando, Wow, you have a direct phone line to the Funeral Home and all that happens there when you're thousands of miles away. To add to your comments regarding Dick's daughter, Emma. You forgot to mention that as soon as she turned sixteen, she secured a job and made sure her father had money in his pocket, visited him regularly, and either joined him for meals, or treated him to meals around town as her budget allowed. She spent many hours at the Christian Center with him, and donated her time to "The Clothes Closet" which benefits the homeless men at the Center. The Vargo family gave him clothes to wear, money to spend, and included him in every holiday and birthday. Emma spent many hours visiting him in the Center Courtyard, among the other homeless men who lived there. She loved her dad, and he loved her, and they made the best of their relationship. Emma spoke the truth in her earlier comments..and he would be heartbroken that you have chosen to attack her.

“ Emma, Sandy, Karen, and Bobbie, I'm so sorry to find out about Dick. I had no idea he was ill. I have fond memories of Dick when we were kids. I still remember that picture of him from the time we dressed him as a girl. May God grant you peace. Blessings, Kathie

“ All of those who really knew Dick and his daughter, knows the relationship they had was a loving one. Dick and I were blessed with a wonderful, beautiful daughter. I am honored and and extremely proud that she inherited all of Dick's loving, caring, and gentle qualities. Those who knew Dick well, know that our daughter, Emma, was the most important person in his life, and know the real truth. They loved one another, and this is all that really matters. I would like to thank you Dick for being there when you could.

“ What a horrible way to find you - I would have liked to have said goodbye. Dickey and I dated in high school and I have always wondered where life took him. I did not know him as a grown man but it has been my experience - people just get older but at their core, they never really change. The Dickey I knew was funny, loving, forgiving and kind. I have no doubt that he died with those same great qualities. To all his family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Richard was a great man, will be missed. What's "messed up" is a daughter blaming the very people that made his last 2 years of life as full as could be. Maybe if you had been around BEFORE getting called about his illness, you would not feel so guilt ridden. How many times did you come and visit before he was sick? Take him to lunch? Sit and visit for an hour? Take him for a ride through town? Richard loved everyone and would be embarrassed by the behavior shown today by the ex and daughter. Loose Family, thank you and sorry for the embarrassing behavior. Sandy, you were good to him. Emma, live in peace with your own guilt and leave those around you out of it. Love To All.

“ EMMA, I am sorry you feel like you were left out, but we talked about it. In your heart you know your name was left out by error. Thursday paper will have correction and you knew that. I'm sorry for your grief, It has nothing to do with the family only a mistake.!!

“ A Place To Rest God looked down on your body, So tired from hanging on, From a life that was overwhelming you, And wanted back His son. So he took away the air you breathe, And gave you what was best, A place to be at peace, A final place to rest. Dickey I remember you like it was yesterday when we sat in class together, you were always making me laugh. You will be missed by so many and you will NEVER be forgotten.....

“ I THINK ITS SO MESSED UP THAT MY FAMILY DIDn't INCLUDE ME IN HIS OBITUARY. I WAS THERE WHEN HE TOOK HIS LAST BREATH I NEVER LEFT HIS SIDE WHEN HE WAS PASSING. ITS ALL OKAY THOUGH BECASUE THE LAST WORDS HE SAID WAS I LOVE YOU AND I WILL ALWAYS CHERISH THAT. I NEVER KNEW THAT MY FAMILY COULD BE SO CRUEL. BUT YOU WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED. I LOVE YOU!
