“ I had the great pleasure to get to know Richard and Joyce through their beautiful daughter, and my dear friend Sarah, who I love as my sister. My favorite memory is when Sarah and I recruited our parents for a full weekend of moving into, cleaning and painting every wall in our Duplex rental apartment in Chicago. Working alongside Richard and my family with Joyce & Sarah was a weekend of accomplishing a lot together, spending quality time while working hard, and of course eating out together over delicious food when the work (and play) was all done. It is a blessing when family, especially parents, show up to help and support when they can. I cherish this weekend we had together with Richard, and the Chicago visits that followed. Joyce, Sarah and family, my deepest condolences to you for your loss.

Love always,
-Nicole Gebhart

“ I have lost a friend, one of the best I ever had, a friend whose heart had no limits. He never run across a Person in need that he ever walked away from. The man's heart said give every time and that is exactly what he did. He never failed to do it one time that I knew of. After he talked to me, he proclaimed ready to meet Jesus. For certain, a true man of God.
