“ To the family, Rita was a wonderful Christian women that was truly devoted to the teachings of Jesus. She now rests in the arms of Jesus. She was a dear high school friend and I am thankful to have been able to spend some time with her again in recent years. Cousin Rita and I would talk about the family history and share stories. I will miss our chats, her laugh and her smile. It would be Rita's desire that we all look to Jesus for our life's journey. I pray the Lord will blanket each of her children and grandchildren with comfort and strength to endure this difficult time.

I remember the fun time when we played together with the cousin's down on Uncle Joe's farm. To many year have gone buy. As you "enter into your rest "and join in with your family members that have gone on before, may you be in eternity with Jesus Christ....
