“ *I was so sad to hear of Bobby's illness and his passing was heart breaking. I have many fun memories of our childhood. Going to Grandma and Grandpa Cook's in the summers and at Christmas time those memories are priceless. I remember playing with Bobby at your house in Columbus.
Aunt Nancy, Uncle Bill, and Rusty- I have had you all in my prayers and will continue praying daily for you all to find peace. Even though people do not stay in touch the love you have for family doesn't go away.
Much love, Kristy Cook Reidy*
