“ Bob, for 25 years you have owned a piece of my heart. There have been times through the years that I wanted that space back, but you held onto it anyway. It comforts me to know that you're with family and friends that love you, and have been waiting to welcome you home. As for those of us that are left behind, we'll all catch up with each other one day. Until then.... Bob, I love you too.

“ I'll miss the heck out of you uncle. We had a lot of crazy times together. You were a good man. I'll always remember you saving your silver dollars for when I came on the weekends to stay at grandmas. And I'll always cherish sitting up late on Saturday nights watching Sami Terry while we got pizza from circle pizza and then Linda would make us pancakes in the morning. You'll forever be in my heart man. I love you peanut!!
