

Robert F. Fath

January 6, 1923 - November 20, 2010

Markleville - Robert F. Fath, 87, Markleville, died November 20, 2010 at St. Johns Health System, Anderson Indiana after a brief illness. He was born January 6, 1923 in Dearborne, MI, and resided in Markleville, IN. He lived in this area most of his life. Robert served his country in the US Army as a Tank Commander with the 735th Tank Batallion and earned the Purple Heart Award. Robert retired from Delco-Remy Division of General Motors after 49.5 years of service. He had a "FABULOUS" life. He lived life to the fullest enjoying casinos, travel, taking cruises, fishing, storytelling and women not necessarily in that order. He is survived by his children: Becky Kirby Sheets of Noblesville, Dan Russell Baumberger of Anderson, and Christine Frank Hunsburger of Ohio. Children from a previous marriage: Linda Scott Hargis of South Carolina and Pam Westervelt of Fishers. Grandchildren: Matthew and Kaitlyn and Ryan and his sister. He was preceded by his wife: Zelda Cleveland Fath; parents and son: Tommy Fath. Cremation will take place. There will be no service or visitation. www.LooseFuneralHomes.com

Tribute Wall

AR

“ I always thought you were the funniest prankster ever! Your smile was so bright and I can still hear your laugh. You were definitely an amazing grandfather who made countless summers special!! I truly wish things would have been different. Till we meet again, Your Barbara 😊

Andrea Rausch - May 10, 2023 at 01:27 PM

KS

“ Hard to believe you have been gone 11 years. You are not forgotten

kirby sheets - November 17, 2021 at 07:51 AM