“ You are a very good brother. You faced rough times early in life only to turn it all around. I'm very proud of your service in the Navy and to your family. I will write more later. Thank you for your friendship. I will miss texting you on holidays and in between. Say hello to our loved ones who have passed on.

You're brother always,
Scott

We went to North Anderson school all the way from 1st to 5th grade. I remember when your brother died in that accident down at the river. You could have just fell apart but you didn't . You lived your life and it was a life to be proud of. I could go on but I will just say REST EASY FELLOW SAILOR WE JAVE THE WATCH.
