“ Although you may not have left footprints, you have passed on a flame that will continue burning until it reaches another torch to carry on the radiance of its warmth. As those who care deeply about you, we will all carry on the fire and love you have shown us throughout the years. You have left many fond memories with us and have made a great impact on many peoples lives. I love you and will keep you in my heart always. Love, Rhiannon

“ Grandpa, I love you very much and am very sad to have you leave us. You brought joy to many of those around you and I was so happy to spend time with you when you came to visit and when Rhiannon and I visited in Indiana. I loved seeing photos of my dad and aunts when they were younger and listening to you tell stories about my family's history. Also, taking us to the Rendevouz was fun and exciting and I know it was something you were very passionate about and I am glad you could share that with us. You will be greatly missed and cherished in our memories. Love, Devon Atalie Huffman
