“ Being the oldest grandchild had its advantages. Uncle Bob was only ten when I came along and I am sure he did a lot of babysitting. One of my best memories is when I was in the 6-9 years when he would take me rabbit hunting with him. He would show me the tracks in different animals made in the snow. The best part was I got to carry the rabbits he shot. I thought I was pretty important. Sylvia Hedrick Henderson.

“ My wife and I were blessed to have known Bob and Mary Ann since 2000 as their neighbors on Torch Lake in Michigan. If we could have picked neighbors, there could never have been better. Bob’s devotion to his wife was a marvelous model of love that was beautiful to watch.

The time we spent looking at the lake and listening to the stories of his life, their life, will forever be part of our memories. Many of our discussions were lively as his thoughts on a changing country were expressed. It is always sad when such a treasured person is taken from family and those others who came to love and respect him.

Bob, enjoy eternity with Mary Ann after a life well-lived.

Respectfully,

Allan and Susan Dobzyniak
