“ It was a great privilege to have worked for Bob over 40 years ago while I was a student preparing to attend mortuary college. Bob always displayed kindness to the families being served. When you learned from Bob you always learned the correct and proper way to serve a family in need. We did not do things the easy way. We did things the right way. Working for Bob all those years ago formed the foundation for a long career in funeral service. My best wishes to the Loose family. Wade Winkler

“ Uncle Bob and Aunt Linda always had a warm hug and welcoming smile for another within their presence. I will miss his laugh and loving hugs. It was always such a blessing to be reunited with our Indiana family. Watching Papa Bill and Bob together was always a joy to behold. I imagine the heavens are roaring in laughter with their reunion. All of my love and big Hoosier hugs to you all.

“ I would like to share my sorrow and prayers for the passing of this wonderful man! He was a behind the scenes mentor to me and in my opinion a Funeral Director Rock Star. I began my career in funeral service in Anderson at the age of 16. Bob was working at Baker Brothers and from time to time when short staff they would call our firm to provide a hand . On several occasions I assisted Bob with a transfer at the hospital and he treated me with such respect . Being so young and not truly knowing what to expect working with someone that was so experienced and from another funeral home he always was so kind in explaining my role with him for the task we were there to perform. When the family was present he always introduced me as one of his associates even though I was just there to fill the role. He was always encouraging me when our paths crossed and provided me with his wisdom for the rookie I was venturing into Funeral Service. His actions during these brief encounters taught me the true fraternity of Funeral Service and when asked he would explain to me that our duty was to this family who entrusted us with their loved one. Even though I was assigned to this task with him, and not working for his company he never would allow me to leave without encouraging words and generously taking money from his own pocket for my minimal help. I would always try to refuse it, as I was on the clock, but he wouldn't have it. I remember getting ready to leave one of these times and he said, “Kid you're alright and you got what it takes to be in this business.” Those words were simple by meant the word to me. Even though I never had the opportunity to work for Bob directly his guidance and wisdom still resonates in my career 40 years later. Gods speed Robert and thank you for taking the time with me when I was so young to ground me in the principals of success in this business! May God bless your family and provide you the peace only he can provide!

“ Aunt Linda, Laura, Rob and extended family!
Memories are plentiful and full of so much happiness and laughter (esp when my dad and uncle Bob were together!) The love and laughter and memories we all shared at family get-togethers (weddings, retirements, births I, Thanksgiving, Christmas and even funerals) will always bring a warmth to my heart! We love you all and hope to see you soon! Aunt Linda, you and Uncle Bob were so good to me and my family! ThankYOU for all of your love and generosity!
Love, Jamy
