“I met Bob when I spoke at your church one evening last year. I'm so sorry for the sadness that you are feeling now. I pray for the Lord to give you His special peace, and hold you in His arms of love. Scripture says that He is your husband and friend, so we trust Him for catching your every tear. I pray that He will fill the emptiness in your heart with His comfort until we see Bob again together in heaven. With love and my continued prayers,
