“ I will always remember my father in law as one who loved his family very much. He was a humble but proud person who saw to it that his children all graduated from college and were prepared for what life had in store. He worked hard every day of his life before he retired. He was always generous with his children and their families. Ruth Ann you have done a good job caring for him in his final days...now he is being watched over by the Lord. God rest his soul.
