

Robin Kay Jones

May 6, 1953 - August 27, 2022

Robin Kay Jones, 69, of Anderson, passed away at her residence after a brief battle with cancer on August 27, 2022. She was born on May 6, 1953, in Anderson, Indiana, where she resided most of her life.

Robin graduated from Anderson High School in 1971.

She was a caring and loving mother and grandmother, who would help anyone in need. She had a deep faith and a love of animals. She was an avid reader and loved trivia. Some of her other hobbies included playing pool and playing cards, but one of her favorite things to do was playing Scrabble with her friend, Mary, for hours on end. She also loved to camp, she appreciated the peacefulness of nature. She loved football and baseball and enjoyed watching the Colts and her beloved Cubbies.

Robin is survived by her loving children, Christopher (Kennita) Jones of Indianapolis and Jennifer (Josh) Gilman of Summitville; grandchildren, Jace and Luke Gilman; niece, Emily (John) Murray; and great-nephews, Jack and Evan. Also, surviving are her siblings, Melanie and Tim.

She was preceded in death by her father, Robert Clear; grandparents, George and Esther Clear; and brother, Jeff Clear.

Cremation will take place without any services at this time.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association.

“ Good bye dear Robin ; I have thought of you often in our life; Growing up together , Grandma Ester making popcorn for us in the new invention-- a Microwave-- to our adult lives, you as one of my bridesmaids 50 years ago this month; playing Jeopardy at your house ; seeing you at my Dad's visitation nearly 12 years ago after not seeing you for too many years; and so many more memories . I treasure them all . Rest in Peace friend, Marsha (Farr) and Tim Mustin

“ Goodbye good friend...until we meet again. I know she loved her children and grandchildren more than anything. She was a dear, special friend to me. I just seen her earlier this year and it was so great to see her again. I know I saw her pass by my home not long ago on Broadway. That truck stood out! Fly high my friend...
