

Roger W. Alford

December 13, 2013

Roger W. Alford, 74, passed away quietly at his home on December 13, 2013. Born in Madison County, he was the son of Ralph and Irene Schacker Alford. A lifelong resident of Pendleton, he was a graduate of Pendleton High School in 1959. He was employed by Kemmerly Chevrolet before beginning 34 years as a machine repairman for Delco Remy. Roger was a member of the Madison Blue Lodge #44, Indianapolis Murat Temple and Madison County Shrine. As a shiner, he was privileged to serve as a transporter of patients to area Shrine hospitals. He loved to hunt & fish and was an avid & knowledgeable collector of fishing equipment & antique outboard motors. Roger enjoyed spending time at the cottage he built on Irish Lake. He was a member of the Outboard Boating Club and The Antique Outboard Motor Club. He was also a charter member of the O.R.E.O. Club. In 1961, he married Sue Jones and they were married for 47 years until her death in 2008. They were the parents of 2 daughters, Felicia Byron Dailey of Fishers, Indiana and Lisa Alford of Portland, Oregon. In 2009, Roger married Vicki Smith Sisson and they blended her children, Kim Zabinski of Fishers and Randy Julie Sisson and 4 grandchildren, Jordan Zabinski, Ben, Luke and Sam Sisson into a second family. He is also survived by a brother, Mickey Betsy Alford of Huntsville. He is also survived by several nieces & nephews. Roger was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Irene Schacker Alford; and a sister & brother-in-law, Audrey and Gaylord Marshall.
