

Roger John Winter

August 3, 1960 - February 7, 2025

Roger John Winter, 64, passed away at home on January 31, 2025. He was born on August 3, 1960, to John and Vivien Winter in Waterloo, Iowa. He was raised in Denver, Iowa, with his brother and sister, Lawrence and Sally.

Roger was an aerospace quality control engineer with a sharp mind and a passion for music. He was a lifelong musician, creating and playing in several bands including "Rampage", "Glitch", "Dave Herring and the Minnows", and "Persephone Rising". He was an extremely skilled guitar player and DJ with impressive guitar and music collections. He won several guitar solo competitions and was regionally sponsored by Ibanez. To his grandchildren of the heart (Viola Jackson and Cooper Reining) he was Papa Roger, adored for his sense of humor, cartoon artwork, and clever games.

Roger is survived by his wife of 15 years, Kay Winter; his son, Zachery Winter; his brother, Lawrence Winter; and his sister, Sally (Brian) Nichols.

“ I met Roger when my family move to Denver, Ia. He became one of my closest friends. We had so many adventures from helping the band Rampage (all guys fome high school) to just hanging out. Roger made a large impact in my life. He is miss more than words could ever express. Rest in the arms of God my brother.

“ I have traveled a lot of miles with Roger. I spent a lot of time with him when he was in the final Rampage. He was a kind and humble person. I consider myself a very lucky man to have known him. He will sadly be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. Roger was the best.
