“ Since I go way back! Ronnie was 4 yrs. older, so, (1.) I remember when he put me on his shoulders so that I could see down in the well at my grandmother's house.....she came flying out of her house fearful that I might fall in! (2.) Then, when I wanted to learn to ride a bicycle, I borrowed his jeans because the road slanted into the ditch where I landed with the muck. (3.) When he visited us, Ma, used to buy bologna and little chocolate cakes with white in the middle, because he had liked them when he was young. He told me one day.....that he did not like them anymore but did not want to spoil her fun! (4.) One of my other fond memories was when he came down, we went to the skating rink where he was fantastic and I was and still am so impressed with his skating skills. I never could learn all his tricks. I just knew that he was gifted. (5.) Ronnie had a very, very, kind heart and I thought he was so cool. He was a friend to all ages in the neighborhood. What a great guy and loved by all when I was young and when I grew to understand just how caring he was. I am so happy that he is with Jesus, Beverly, Heno, my mom and many others. I am sure they are having a great reunion. I am so blessed to know they are already rejoicing together. How great to know that he has moved to his forever home! Erma Jean
