

Ronald D Clark

November 13, 1942 - August 18, 2017

Ronald D Clark, 74, of Anderson, went to be with his Lord and Savior on August 18, 2017 after a 15-month battle with a rare bone marrow cancer. He was born on November 13, 1942 in Orange, California.

Ron graduated from Santa Ana High and earned a AA degree from San Jose State College.

He was a proud U.S. Navy Veteran and patriot.

He was proud to donate over 25 gallons of blood.

He enjoyed fishing, golfing, playing Scrabble and games with family and friends, baking, snorkeling in Hawaii, playing with his dogs, nature and singing-especially praises to God. He loved to make everyone laugh with his wit and unique sense of humor.

He formerly owned and operated Clear View Window Washing and Pressure Cleaning in Porterville, CA, often whistling/singing as he worked.

He was a member of First Church of the Nazarene, recently in Anderson and formerly in Madisonville, KY and Porterville, CA.

Ron is survived by his loving wife Carla Jo (Broad) Clark of Anderson; sister, Linda A Miller of Big Bear, CA; Brother-in-law and Sister-in-law, Steve (B. Joy) Broad of Middletown; several cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, and many friends.

He was preceded in death by father, James Franklin Clark; mother, Nora Mae Clark; brother, James C Clark.

Cremation arrangements were entrusted to Loose Funeral Home & Crematory Anderson.

Memorial Service will be held this fall.

Ron was head and shoulders above us in many ways! I always enjoyed his presence and humor when I understood it! He was fun to play table games with along with the family, but what I really enjoyed was singing by him n church - he was a tremendous Bass Singer!! Wish I had lived near him and family!!! I look forward to living with him in heaven!!!! Love, Doug & Jean Purdy
