“ Mitch, We love You more than words could ever express. You are our Hero. You are the strongest human-being I have ever known and You have a heart of gold. We will miss You so much, not a day will ever pass when you are not in our thoughts. Our heart goes out to every single person who's life Mitch ever touched. Losing him is probably the single greatest loss of our lives. We Love ALL of our family and friends and want to express our heartfelt gratitude for all your help and comfort. Thanks and Love, The Cobles

“DAD, We love you with all our hearts! It's hard to believe we've already reached this moment. So short was the time from when you first told us "hello" to us having to tell you "goodbye". As sad as that fact is, the fact also is that you successfully raised your children into strong, self-sufficient adults who know how to be great parents because of the incredible example you set. You were everything you ever taught us to be and so much more. Not only Were you our rock and our guide, but you ARE our rock and our guide. All you've ever done for us and taught us is still etched into our lives our hearts and our souls never to be forgotten by us and to be passed on to your Grandchildren. You have left a great legacy in all your family and in the multitude of friends who's lives you've touched and blessed with your love, wisdom and your well known brand of sarcastic humor. Everyone knew that you liked them when you started picking on them. Though this short time is difficult for us. You've blessed this world with 61 years of great memories; never to be forgotten, but to make us smile when we want to cry. You were strong, You were wise, You were hilarious. We Miss You! See you in GOD's Kingdom!

“I met Ron Mitchell in July, 1968. He was so handsome but shy. I admit I talked to him first, because he was sitting by himself away from everyone. Four months later we were married. Our life together didn't last, but we did have 3 beautiful children who tied us together forever. Now our children have to go on for a little while without their beloved Dad. But, his legacy lives on through our children and our children's children. When I look into their eyes, I see their Dad, his smile, hear his voice, his laughter, He was my first love, my only love. I look at our children, and I see the love we once shared, and I know he'll be in my heart always.

“ WE LOVE YOU and will miss you very much. As the 'White Sheep' of the family, I always felt welcomed and loved as one of your own. This will never be forgotten. In recent years I've lost a Father and a Brother, but now I've lost the closest thing I have to a DAD. The last ten years have been unfair, but you held strong through all the trials and tribulations thrown before you, and yet continued to be strong and a rock for all to lean on. I only pray that I can be as strong for my family, and to be half the man I saw you be. We love you and will miss you more than words could ever say. 'The White Sheep'
