“ I will always remember playing as a young child with Uncle Ron. He would never turn a kid down to throw a ball, play a game or throw you in the pool. He loved to tease and get a rise out of you and then give you a big hug. He also gave me my first ride on a motorcycle. I will never forget how thrilling and fun it was. Even though he lived farther away than my other uncles, I felt the closest to him and will always carry fond memories of him with me in my heart. Rest in God's hands now.
