“ Aunt Rosy was always laughing and causing mischief. Her sense of humour was always impeccable and her timing perfect. If she teamed up with both Aunt Lynn and Aunt Glenna, forget about it! Who ever was on the receiving end was sure to catch a verbal pummeling! Good natured though, because she and they were there to make everyone laugh and feel loved. Her telling me that my wife Michelle was a keeper and that I better do right by her, made me know that blood doesn't always let you get away with things! When I talked to her about marriage, being freshly married back in '92, she said that it took work, patience, a little stubbornness, and a huge amount of love. When I asked if she was still in love with Uncle Ray, she said "God yes hon! He is the love of my life! We work well together." I believed her and took her words to heart. That is how I want to live my marriage and my life. Her being there in Lincoln, Nebraska for Uncle Kenny, she made my kids fall in love with her. Previous meetings, the girls were too young, but that time made them feel the same way I did. My favourite memory was the goofy seance she did when I spent the night at the old house. We were going to call Abe Lincoln and talk to him, but the "floating table" was just her knees. As much as she tried to say otherwise! Just then Uncle Ray came home from work and scared the crap out of all of us. Her too! I will miss her terribly. And my prayers and love go to Ray, Michelle and Julie. Stay strong and remember long. I love you all! ”

“Michelle, I am so sorry to hear that your Mom passed. I hope that she was comfortable and at peace at the time of her passing. I hadn't seen her for a few years. I ran into her at the grocery several years ago, and we chatted for a while. She got me caught up on you and your family. You and your family have been in my thoughts, and you will be in my prayers. With Sympathy, April Baker Brooks
