“ I was so sorry to hear about Roxie. I always thought Roxie was a very "classy" lady, and I will always remember her million dollar smile. I remember talking to her at every basketball game when I was a cheerleader. She always had kind things to say. She was quite the seamstress, and I remember an outfit that she made for me. It was one of my favorite outfits, and I always loved wearing it. Roxie was a real sweetheart, a loving wife, and a proud mother. She will be greatly missed by everyone whose lives she touched. My heart pours out to Jack, Sharon, and Gary.
