“ Dear Aunt Helen, I'm sorry. We grew so far apart. It wouldn't seem right for me to be there. I will have you in my heart and prayers. You and Uncle Roy have always been in my thoughts. I have wonderful childhood memories being at your house on Thanksgiving. I know it is hard. I know you are a God loving woman. I know you know it is all Gods plan and with him you can rejoice. My heart goes out to and your extended family. I never stopped loving you all.
