“ I think of Dad every day. I miss him and wish he could come back to visit for a while. I wouldn't want him to have to stay for very long though. I am sure he has a lot to catch up on in his new home with his fathers, old friends, and family. I thank him for being the best. I love you Dad.

“ My very first preacher has now stepped into eternity with Jesus. Even though I was young when we moved from Anderson, I have great memories of Roy's enthusiastic preaching and kindness. (As it was well known that the choir behind him had to pay close attention to flying watches, etc.. when Roy preached) Because of his obedience to God in his lifelong ministry is a huge reason why I am a believer in Jesus myself. When I was around 3 years old or so, Roy , who was our neighbor's minister called on our family. We weren't going to church then. However, my mom was searching at the time - she was actually reading the Bible when he rang our doorbell. Ironically enough she was reading about "beware of false teachers", what got him in the door was (the Spirit of God of course_ + the fact that he mentioned our neighbor, June Brummett, who was one of the kindest ladies. So my parents both started going to Southern Heights Christian Church in Anderson IN and raised their children in church who have raised their children in church and now another generation in church. And that is just the impact on one family. I am grateful to God for bringing Roy into our lives that day! I know his family and friends will miss him. My prayers are with you! Thank you Roy for giving your life to the Lord!

“ It has saddened my heart to hear of Roy's passing. Roy has fought a tough battle and is now at peace. I am sure that Vic met him at the gate. Everlasting peace is what you have worked for for many years now you have finally earned your crown. Rest in peace my friend.
