“ Doug was above all else a family man. When he was working at OMR his Fridays were spent waiting for his girls to arrive for the weekend. Didnt matter to him if it was one or two or three or more. The more the merrier! We all know he loved his card games and when Opal was still with us delighted in playing Euchre with her. He was the very definition of friend. One could always count on him to help or to know who could help if he could not. He had a ready smile, a quick wit, He was an honest and caring person. He will be missed. Lindie and family we love you all and are so very sorry for your loss.
