“ Sharon & the rest of Rozan's family, I was sad to read that Rozan had passed away. What a nice picture that was chosen for her for the paper...looked just as I remember her. Mom and Dad liked Rozan and Harry very much as neighbors and friends. They also enjoyed having you and Armond as good neighbors also. Sharon, Thanks for all you did for mom and dad. We all appreciated your efforts very much in those days. Hope all is well with the rest of your family. Thoughts and prayers to all. Larry McAllister

“ Rozan was always tons of fun, and one thing we remember about her is how she always like to share great discoveries with us. She'd come over with some good-smelling lotion from Avon and have us put it on with her. One time, she even asked if she could bake in our oven and fixed up some Pizza Sticks right after they first came on the market in 1967. When I Ainsley Jo was little, my mom used to tell me not to make a pest of myself with Rozan, so I was always happy to announce that she was "available on the bank" when she was outside doing yardwork and head over to gab awhile.
