Dana, Amy, and Cassie, You know my heart holds so many special memories of times shared with your family and mine. He was very special to me and my children and we will miss him. Please know we keep you in our prayers and that we cherish the love and laughter God so graciously gave when he allowed our lives to be touched by your Dad--he truly was one of a kind--and my kids will be sharing their Uncle Buck stories for many years to come to their grandchildren because the stories need to be retold! May he rest in peace and may God grant you comfort. I love you. Aunt Lynda
