“ Mrs. McClasky I am deeply sorry for your loss. Russell was a good bus driver and we will miss him greatly. I am sorry for not being able to attend Russell's services. Even though Russell did not work for us long he was part of our bus driver family and if we can help during this sad time please let us know. Tracy

“ I undestand your feelings at this time. I will make myself available for anything you may need. Just let me know. Unless I'm needed in any way, I won't attend the funeral. It would mean leaving home at 5am, but I will if you wish. Dan
