“ Dear "Little Sister" Debbie and family: Your mother was a sweet lady that I remember always having a cheery attitude and a smile; kind to others, loyal to family and devoted to you and your Dad. Surely your load has been very heavy these past few years, but I know you have been, as always, a wonderful daughter who did her best for both of them. Like Momma Dolores and Daddy Rusty, she and your Dad, together with them, are truly in a better place. I've been thinking back to all those great years the four of us were growing up and what wonderful times they were. Memories flooded back of playing on our swing set together, my gifts to the three of you of the measles and chicken pox, Sunday School, the fish fry, you as my flower girl, and on and on. Such a blessing for us all. I hope you'll let your memories give you comfort, know that you were and are loved by many, and that your parents and ours have their final peace. Remember the Lord is with you always. With all my love
