“ *Everyone has a favorite aunt...mine was my Aunt Ruth Opal she left yesterday at the age of 95. My memories are fond! A very strong and determined woman. You would think she was German if you didn't know she was French. I spent some summer weeks enjoying the puffy bed and fluffy towels. Aunt Ruth made dresses to match for me and my doll.
I didn't see her enough which saddens me...I guess I imagined she would always be there.

Many great memories to hold close to our heart. We took several trips out West (which she loved & we did too) She was a very caring, loving Sister and we will miss her very much.....Brother (Bob) & Sis-in-law (Ruthie)
