“ *Christen and Family,
I wish I could find the right words to help/comfort you right now but I am at a loss as to what to say. You and Ryan have a beautiful family and I pray that God gives you the strength you need to comfort your kids and help them find some kind of peace with this horrific life change. You have many people around you that love you dearly and will be there to help you stay strong. Lean on your friends and wrap your arms around your kiddos so they know their family unit will be all right. I loved your mom and I know that she is watching over you while she is giving Ryan a good talking to.....Sometimes there are no answers and we just have to put our faith in God's hands and let him lead us through the dark times. Let me share my favorite prayer with you and hope that it helps you as much as it does me;
God grant me the serenity to to accept the things I cannot change;
the Courage to change the things I can and the Wisdom to know the difference.
I love you Christen and will always be willing to help you any way I can.*

“ So many fun memories with you and Christen. Every time I hung out with you guys everyone had a blast. Like many others I've spent several days reminiscing on the good times that we all had together....a Maly's cruise, pool parties, lots of cz gatherings. I remember you making the stations the first time that cz remodeled. I don't have one memory involving you that wasn't a good one. I am so saddened for your beautiful wife and kids. I pray that you have found peace. I also pray that your family finds the strength they need to move forward in life. May you rest in peace Ryan!
