June 10, 1930 - July 1, 2014

Sam R. Price, 84 of Anderson passed away on July 1, 2014 after a month long battle with the West Nile Virus/ Encephalitis.

Sam was born June 10, 1930 in Anderson and was a 1949 graduate of Anderson High School.

He lived in Anderson his entire life. Sam was a local building contractor and real estate developer. He started at Forkner-Manger lumber company in 1952 and then went into business for himself in 1963. He developed the Meadow Woods and Scotts Glen subdivisions along with building the Pricewood and Hilltop Heights Apartment complexes.

Sam was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Scottish Rite, and was a former president and board member for the Anderson Home Builders Association. He was also a former member of the Anderson Country Club where he particularly enjoyed playing in the Tuesday night Twi-Light Golf League.

He was an avid fan of the Anderson Indians, Indiana Hoosiers and the Cincinnati Reds. Sam would often frustrate the rest of the family by turning the radio off when his team was playing poorly, only to sneak back in and turn the radio back on. He never gave up.

Sam is survived by his son, Gregory A. Price of Anderson; Sister, Barbara Ann McDowell of Anderson; nephews, Dan (Lois) McDowell of New Albany and Kent (Traci) McDowell of Anderson; and last but not least his faithful four-legged grand-dog, Gunner.
