“ There are so many memories to choose from, you’ve always been in my life always laughing, teaching, loving and always giving in every way possible. Teaching me about the mustard seed that was in a necklace that you got me when I was little. About loving Jesus. Listening to Elvis and dancing and to always smile. Always loving unconditionally and everyone. Always making us laugh and crying with me. I hope I made you proud and that I am and can be half the loving woman that you have taught me to be. Loving you always, you’ll always be in my heart and my memories. I love you so so much. Missing you although I know that you’re still going to be watching over all of us forever.
