Although she was only in it for a brief time, Sandy changed the course of my life, as well as the lives of my two sisters. When she was married to her second husband (our uncle), John, she saw how we were living. It was less than ideal. She told Uncle John they needed to do something about it, & they did. They took us in to live with them. He made sure we all got a college education. He walked me down the wedding aisle twenty years ago. He passed earlier this year. I'll always be grateful for our years together....& for our years with you. I loved our family vacation to Florida, I believe in 1982. It was shortly after we moved in that Pam welcomed baby Lacey. I'm so thankful for Sandy and Tom, Pam, Tim, & Lacey. May God comfort you in this time of grief (Matthew 5:4). Sending lots of love to all of you. ~ Valarie (Van Voorhis) Kline
