

Sarah Claire Irene Smythe

February 20, 1992 - June 28, 2015

Sarah Claire Irene Smythe passed on the evening of June 28, 2015. A dreamer, creator, lover and absolute inspiration, Sarah truly touched each person with whom she crossed paths.

Sarah graduated from PHHS in June 2010 and graduated in May 2015 with her primary Bachelor's Degree in Public Relations and Advertising from University of Southern Indiana, Evansville.

As a photographer, designer, culinary artist, and visionary, Sarah articulated the magnificence of this life.

Sarah is survived by her mother and stepfather Julie and Ron Patterson, her father Craig Smythe, her maternal grandfather John Frossard, and her siblings Taya Smythe, Jason McCrocklin and Meghan McCrocklin, Craig and William Smythe, and several aunts and uncles and cousins. She is preceded in death by her brother Ryan McCrocklin, her maternal grandmother Gladys Frossard, and her paternal grandparents William and Charlotte Smythe.

The family would like to thank Dr. Eddy, and also Dr. Rushing for his compassionate guidance, and nurses Janelle, Diane, Maggie, SVAR nurses Amy, Diane, Annie, Jasmine, Case Manager Shelly, nurses Cheryl, Kathy, Jet and Joanne. Finally, we would like to thank Dr. Rochon, USI, for his academic support.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Ambrose Catholic Church in Anderson, Indiana on Thursday July 2nd at 11am with Father Jeff Martin and Monsignor Robert Sell officiating.

Sarah's wishes are that everyone wear pink to this occasion!

In lieu of flowers, family ask donations be made in the memory of Sarah Claire Irene Smythe to either the Madison County Humane Society (Sarah loved animals), 2219 Crystal St. Anderson, IN 46012 or to the SVAR Foundation Cancer Fund, 2015 Jackson St. Anderson, IN 46016.

“ Sarah was beautiful, and she saw beauty everywhere. She was kind, creative, gangly, goofy. Strong, feminine, snuggly, snacky. She had a great sense of humor and was profoundly unintimidating when she was mad, or pretending to be. I can still hear her yelling "Taya!", sighing "Taya..."

She loved her sister Taya. She loved her family, her friends, her dog. She loved Panera Bread, and she really really really loved Starbucks.

She was a dreamer. She remembered birthdays. The little things made her happy, but she didn't simply live in the moment... She took nothing, no one for granted. Like any good Pisces, she was mysterious.

The last time I saw her was back in January. We had a lovely dinner with Craig and she dropped me off at the airport after. Driving in the dark, she was telling me about what she might want to do after USI, the places she might like to live. She was just this thoughtful, self-possessed, impressive young woman, gentle and warm as ever.

I wish she'd had more time. But it is a gift to have known her. Sarah lived her life with rare and true grace.

“ Sarah was my 1st grade reading buddy when I was in 6th grade. I'm so heartbroken to hear of her passing. Although I hadn't seen her in quite some time, I will always remember her as the happy sweet little girl who always wanted me to read her; If You Give a Mouse a Cookie. I'll be praying for comfort and peace for you and your family.

“ To my so good friend Craig from Mackenzie, please take heart with these words.

It's been a long day, without you my friend, and I'll tell you all about when I see you again. We've come a long way from where we began, and I'll tell you all about when I see you again, when I see you again."

Yes Sarah is gone but her spirit lives on. She's all around you, she's with you all the time. You may not see or hear her, but she's there.

“ Sarah- I know you are looking down upon us today as we celebrate your beautiful life. You were always a happy go lucky person- I will always remember the countless concerts we attended along with many Starbucks and Panera dates! If it weren't for you I am not sure I would ever have passed Algebra 1 or 2- You loved to always stop by every time you drove through Terre Haute were I went to college at ISU. Im glad USI was the perfect half way point. Thank you for all the wonderful memories- I cant wait to celebrate on Friday with your family and dear friends. I am blessed I am able to come home from Texas and celebrate your beautiful life. Until we meet again my sweet girl, fly high the angels!

“ Dear God our father in heaven, 23 years ago You sent us a gift. You sent a woman of true beauty inside and out, an altruist from birth.

But above all she was a gracious Christian gentle woman, a woman among women who loved her parents, family and friends with all her heart.

Dear God our father in heaven, we commend to you, the soul of Sarah Snuggy Smythe. May she repose at your right hand.

Beautiful, beautiful Sarah ,

“ An ode to a parent :
“Of them all, it was the true love. Of them all, it was the best. That other sumptuous love which made one drunk, which one longed for, envied, believed in, that was not life. It was what life was seeking; otherwise a suspension of life. But to be close to a child, for whom one spent everything, whose life was protected and nourished by one's own, to have that child beside one, at peace, was the real, the deepest, the only joy.”

I wish to extend my sincere sympathy to you! How can you deal with a piece

Of your heart missing? I know it will be rough for a long time, but realizing you

Know my Father, well, you will going on living and being the person He called you to be.

Take heart He knows, He cares and He loves you.

My memories of Sara are mostly of her as an infant.

“ Sarah was an angel here on earth touched so many life's including mine and Tom's. We got to be a part of Sarah's life and spend time watching her grow up to a sweet and beautiful young lady, she was always thinking about everyone else.

We are so thankful to Julie and Craig for letting Sarah be a part of mine and Tom's life's. I know when god took Sarah he needed that special angel and heaven is shinning so bright now. Sarah has taught the life's she has touch, to want to be like Sarah, what a world we would be living in if we were like her. Sarah was special to us and she will be forever missed. We loved you Sarah, and thanks for loving us.

Our prayers are with all Sarah's family.
