“ Judy and Dick Just wanted you to know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers. It has to be the hardest loss in the world to lose a child. We expect them to outlive us. ALS is very similar to Huntington's Disease, so I really do get it. I was thinking that Betty will be sorry Scott had to leave his family at such a young age; but will be waiting for him with open arms. What a blessing for Brandi and the kids to have you and Dick for grandparents. Love, Jeanne
