“ Dear Kate & Steve, We are so saddened by your loss. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers. As Debbie & I were thinking of Scott this morning, we smiled at the memory of the times I would tell Scott he had "garments all over his body". He would seem concerned and the adults giggled. With love, John & Debbie Daugherty

“ I want to express my sadness in the passing of Scott. Scott was a friend of my son and I met him several times. More recently, my husband and I had the pleasure of dining at Mesh and Scott was our server. He was most attentive and treated us with such graciousness. His smile and kindness will always remain with me. My prayers are with his mother and father and I pray their pain will ease with fine memories. May Scott rest in peace. Darlene Brown-Nizamoff

“ Dear Kate & Steve, I'm very saddened to hear of Scott's passing. I'm at a loss for words, but remember an Irish quote I once read-- "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal; Love leaves a memory no one can steal". You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God wrap his loving arms around all of you.

“ To the Painter Family, I wanted to express my sincere condolences for your loss. Scott had a contagious personality and was a great friend to so many of us while at IU and beyond. He was generous, compassionate, and always made you feel like you've been best friends, even if it had been years since you last spoke. We will all miss his laughing, his dancing, and his smile. May God bless your family.

“ It's hard to express the impact someone can have on you and as I've been reflecting on Scott's impact in my life, it's hard not to smile. His laugh was contagious, his dancing erratic, and his words of encouragement sincere. This is how I remember him...I will surely miss him.
