“ To the family I offer my deepest sympathy. I only met Sharon once with her grandsons Noah & Nicholas and my daughter Michelle. But had heard so many wonderful things about Sharon. That she had wonderful caring people around her, her parents, sister and brother. Her children, Amy & Nathan. Lots of special friends threw out her life time. Sharon seemed to accept God will for her in a unique way not letting it make her bitter but a very strong loving person. They say God has a purpose in life for everyone and he did for Sharon. She was the light and the way for her love ones that she left behind. Her daughter Amy is a very special person, a very caring daughter and a loving Aunt to Noah & Nicholas. Noah loves to spend time with her and I know in my heart that Amy was taught to be a very caring, loving, patience person just like her own Mother. There is a new grand baby on his way soon and Sharon I promise that me and Michelle will always remind him that he has a very loving MaMaw up in heaven watching over him. All your grandsons will know that they have a special Angel of their very own guarding and guiding them which is their Grandmother.
