“ We will always fondly remember your loved one. Although we met only briefly, she made a lasting impression on us with her sweet smile and her kind and cheerful ways. We can never completely know your pain, but having also lost loved ones we can sympathize with your loss. May your wonderful memories sustain you. You are a beautiful family and God will see you through this adversity. We will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers. With caring love,
The Dickman Family.
