“ I was Lab/Pathology Secretary and worked with Sharon until my retirement and enjoyed being around her so much. So many Max, Mason and Mark stories. She adopted a kitten Lucky I found in a dumpster at the hospital. She was caring for all.

“ Max, It seems like only yesterday I saw you and Linda at the AHS Class Reunion and learned of Sharon's cancer. How swiftly the past year has gone by for me...no doubt even more swiftly for you. Thinking of you and Linda especially at this time, but praying earnestly for the entire family. May God cradle you all in the palm of His hand and bless you with the strength and comfort you need.
