

Sharon Kay (Ship) Holcomb

August 26, 1949 - December 29, 2024

Sharon Kay (Ship) Holcomb, 75, left this life for her heavenly home early Sunday morning, December 29, 2024, at the Ascension St. Vincent Hospital of Anderson following an extended illness.

Sharon graduated in 1967 from Madison Heights High School with honors and later graduated from Indiana Wesleyan University in Marion, Indiana in health care. She eventually became a CNA (Certified Nursing Assistant) having done home care as well as work for Hopewell for 17 years, retiring in 2017.

She attended Highland Baptist Church. She also enjoyed playing solitaire on her tablet, watching old movies and video games at Sweet Galilee in Anderson when she resided there, and fishing whenever possible. But mostly Sharon loved serving people at Hopewell, especially when it came to the holiday dinners.

Survivors include two sisters, Bonnie Haines and Cindy Hamilton (Duke); two brothers, Danny Leath and Billie Leath; and several neices and nephews.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by one sister, Jamie McKey-Wiggins; and two brothers, Robert Leath and Maxey Leath.

Cremation has been chosen with a private family scattering of cremated remains at a favorite fishing spot at a later date. Loose Funeral Homes and Crematory is entrusted with these arrangements.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.loosecares.com.

Tribute Wall

“ *Lisa lit a candle in memory of Sharon Kay
(Ship) Holcomb*

Lisa - January 12, 2025 at 09:04 PM