“ she was a great mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, spouse, and just a great friend. She gave everyone all the love she could give someone. I know because she raised me since I was born and she never allowed me to forget how much she loved me. As a young kid I was climbing up my dresser to get to the top drawer when the whole dresser and tv fell on me and she went out the door yelling for help. I will never forget the memories we shared together. I love you forever
