I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Parents shouldn't have to bury a child. I'll continue to keep your family in prayer.

“ I knew her as a little girl and I have known the family my entire life. After some time away I was reunited with Shelby at her place of employment and it was really great to see her after such a long time. Just glad I got to see her because I always wondered and cared how she was doing. Prayers to one of my best friends and his family through this hard time.
