“ I am the granddaughter of Bus and Sally Straw - long time friends of Bill and Shirley. I lived with my grandparents and would often see Bill and Shirley at our house for bridge, garden club, dinner or for occasional visit. My memories of Shirley are fond and the Fines were the only friends of my grandparents that I invited to my wedding back in 1990. Bill would always show me pictures of his grandson and wanted to know if I would be interested in dating him! It always got a laugh and Shirley would tell him to leave me alone, that he was embarrassing me. Shirley will be sadly missed, but I have nothing but happy memories of the times I was fortunate to have with her.
