“ I barely knew this lady as anything other than Mimi, as a matter of fact I had to think when I was asked her real name.

Mimi has taught me so many things throughout the years. How to get nice crispy bacon and less of a mess by placing it in the oven. She made the best sausage and peppers and shared the know how with me.

Mimi loved gardening and planted huge gardens many times throughout the years. She was never greedy when harvest time came. Mimi loved people and seemed to equally enjoy sharing harvest from her garden, that she had worked so hard to grow.

Mimi always gave the biggest hugs for such a tiny little lady. She loved so much bigger than she was tall. My goodness I will miss you Mimi!

I worked with Lin at Kindercare. I worked there 15 years. She was the best cook by far that worked there while I was there. Surely she is missed by her family whom she loved so much.
